

STARS OF FOOTLIGHTS WHO WILL APPEAR HERE NEXT WEEK

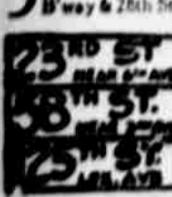

MISS RAZIER
AND MARY
HAINES AT GRAND CENTRAL DANCE
PALACECOOL FOR DANCERS
AT CENTRAL PALACE.

After announcing a good week's business at the Grand Central Palace, the management of the Dancing Carnival to-day asserted it would be kept in full swing through the summer. In addition to the splendid ventilating system of the building, a large number of electric fans blow over the dancing floor. Also the decorations have taken on a summer appearance. The trees are in bloom; the cool woods; Spanish moss hangs from the ceilings and mingles with the green leaves of trees. The instructing capacity of the Dancing Carnival has increased until 2,500 separate lessons can be given now in a single day. This represents the largest dancing academy in the world.

CHIP AND MARBLE
AT FIFTH AVE. THEATRE.

For the first half of the week Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre, where popular prices prevail, will offer Sam Chip and Mary Marlin in "The Land of Dykes"; Dan O'Neil, matinette; Dan Burke and company in "The Old Master," a dance farce; Anita Diaz's troupe of monkeys; a Charles Chaplin film comedy and South American pictures. Heading the bill at the Twenty-third Street Theatre will be John P. Wade in "Moral Sheety's Clamor Dinner." For its chief feature the Fifty-seventh Street Theatre will have "A Modern Eve." And the Broadway and Times Square Theatre troupe will share

VAUDEVILLE.
F. PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE & PHOTO PLAYS
5th AVE.
B'way & 28th St.PLAZA
THEATRE
REASURING HUMAN MASTERS
The Clemenceau Case
FEATURING THEA BABA
AND HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE.
See ALLEN MILLER & CO. and others.

VAUDEVILLE.

MAY DAILY, 25c-50c
2,000 Choice Seats, $6.
PALACEMISS KITTY GORDON
BESSIE CLAYTON

DU CALION HANS KRONOLD JACK WILSON

MANHATTAN CANNING CO.

CANSINO

DOOLEY RUGEL

JACK WILSON

MERMAN NOVELTY

WORLD'S FAIR

LUMINAR

JACK WILSON

CORT

UNDER COVER

FRANKLIN BATES

JACK WILSON

JACK WILSON